VOL XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1898 No. 6,

HON. HENRY DEMAS,
United States' Naval Officer, New Orleans, La.

DEMAS IN TOWN.'

Ex-Senator Henry Demas, of New Orleans, at present United States' Naval officer, has arrived in town. He has called upon the Secretary of War and offered 1,500 colored immunes. The Government will need Negro troops for occupancy of the proposed acquired territory, and as these immunes are used to the tropical climate, ex-Senator Demas is of the opinion that the Secretary of War will accept them.

THEY SAY.

Colored colonels will be needed soon.

District immunes who left on last Saturday night were in need of a bath.

It is surprising to us to see so much discrimination.

The colored soldiers will fight when it is necessary.

It is hoped that the colored schools will be reorganized.

Some people think it is not necessary to know themselves as well as to know others.

The colored American man is in need of advice.

Drawing the color line in schools is something the people will not tolerate.

Dr. A. M. Curtis of the Freedmen's hospital will have a bonanze on his shoulders.

Commissioner Wight did not appreciate the speech of young Wilkinson.

There are lots of things he will not like before he dies.

We don't always get what we like.

Let us think a little bit before we tell all we know.

Dick Greener is still lingering around.

Senator Hanna has won in Ohio.

Harry Smith of the Cleveland Gazette is a bold and fearless editor.

He is no toady to official favors.

Paymaster Lynch will start soon.

He is an honest man.

Capt. Lyons has a host of friends since he won without the aid of those who are now asking him for favors.

The BEE is glad to know that the Atlanta Age is satisfied.

Better once than never.

Some people carry two faces when nature only gave them one.

Honesty is always the best policy.

Speak the truth it will sting more that a lie.

The hot weather is hard on the soldiers.

If you want a great race advocate read The BEE.

The negroes are learning some sense.

If the Administration thinks that is can pull the veil over the eyes of the negro it is mistaken.

Patriotism begins at home.

There should be more patriotism on the part of the southern lynchers.

We need protection at home.

It is easier to run away than it is to fight.

Cowards run when no one is after them.

Some colored men will toady.

It is not the man who tells all he knows that is the wise man.

Wise men are not always the bold men.

Think well and act accordingly.

Read The BEE if you want a fearless race advocate.

No, we want no Afro-American league in this city.

President Fortune should call it in New York or Chicago.

Go south, say Virginia if not west.

We can then tell the southern people what we think of them.

Let us work in harmony.

The great man is the honest man,

Be honest and fear not.

The President will lift the civil service soon.

Lewis H. Douglas is a thorough race man.

He knows what he is talking about always.

None of the self-constituted committeee will volunteer.

Why is the delay, will some one explain?

Dr. Richardson will be commissioned.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

A NEGRO TO USE?

If we are to take the opinion of the Post as correct, the colored race has at least two leaders. One of these has advanced the theory that the proper education for the colored man is industrial, not classical nor mixed. The other, although a well known champion of higher education for the race, has if we understand the Post correctly advanced a theory of tame submission to the injustice and indignity which surround us and avises us to plod on thanking God that the erstwhile rebel sentiment, which is fast being spread by those of our own race who are ambitious for notoriety is of such a quality as to graciously permit us to stay on the earth. We have no patience with the so called leader number one. The views advanced by our best friends both white and black are well known and we are content to know that, as the colored man is no exception to the human race, his progress in the attainment of knowledge and a high civilization must be the result of the same or similar methods which have advanced mankind generally. In the case of so-called leader number two, we think that the Post has missed its hold. It may be that as an incidental remark, Prof. Miller, advised young men not to devote all of their time in complaining. He may out of the proverbal charity which characterizes his race, have sought to account for the meanness of the white brother in the inducement which the weakness of our race offers to the mature aggressiveness and self conceit of another. But we are certain that Prof. Miller may have claims to leadership. He is one of men of whom any race might well feel proud. He has too much sense to be flattered and cajoled into an opposition to his own and the interest of the race, by accepting fulsome overtures which the Post gratutously extends. The Post is not yet out of the old rut, namely, that ante bellum custom of looking around for a good man and upon finding him seeking to use him in furthering the interest of prejudice and race power. But whatever may be the attitude of the herein mentioned so-called leaders the fact remains that the colored people are not satisfied with their present status, that they do not regard the Post as the exponent of their best and highest interests and that any man or set of men who seek to excuse palliate or condone the wrongs which we are being heaped upon us during our struggle for honor, virtue and manly independence, is an enemy of the race and to mankind generally. Moreover, the Post, in its indorsement of a policy of indifference as to our rights, is not in line with these honest, progressive and patriotic whites who believe in giving to all American citizens everything which according to the laws of God and the laws and constitution of the country entitle them. On the contrary the Post only echoes the non-progressive and prejudiced element who, not possessing the manliness to allow a fair show to the colored people are seeking, by misrepresentation within and flattery and sickening laudation without to belittle the race upon whom the depended and still depend for the luxuries and even the necessaries of life. To be antagonized by the northern whites who are but little indebted to us be an act of unkindness, but coming from the south where even the very life of the whites was due to the fidelity of our people, this attempt to keep us down is the unkindest of the unkind, it is base ingratitude. criminal and mean.

BELONGS TO ANOTHER COLLEGE.

One of the members of the visiting committee is a graduate of Georgetown College, hence we are not surprised at such a report.

We informed the secretary, that had men been appointed acceptable to the people he would have no cause to complain of the alleged mismanagement of the hospital Dr. C. B. Purvis, formerly the surgeon-in-chief of the hospital always kept a corps of competent physicians around him and his reports to the Secretary of the Interior were made quarterly.

There were several investigations made of Dr. Purvis administration of affairs, and in no instance was he charged with incompetency nor mismanagement of the affairs of the institution.

The brief period that Dr. Francis had charge of the hospital nothing could be saidderogatory of him.

The whole business looks like an attempt to destroy the usefulness of a colored institution. Colored young men are not permitted to enter any white medical institution on account of the color prejudice against them. We have too much confidence in Congress to believe that that body will sanction such a gigantic blunder that has been made by a so-called board of visitors, appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. We are not surprised at the indorsement that has been given to the report of Dr. Curtis, because he wants to hold his job.

He owes it to himself, notwithsanding the salary he is to receive to protest. He belongs to that class of colored men that a white face can intimidate. He declares that he is not responsible, and what he is doing is by orders of the Secretary of the Interior and board of visitors. What has become of his manhood?

DR. DANIEL H. WILLIAMS.

This most eminent and distinguished physician needs no defense by THE BEE. His reputation as a physician was made long before he came to Washington. He came against his will and left when he got ready. He asked no favors from any one nor did he accept any. He is the most independent man in this country and honest to his profession. These attacks on Dr. Williams are the result of a conspiracy to satisfy personal pique on the part of certain colored physicians Dr. Williams has opposed. So far as the management of the Freedman's Hospital is concerned, while he was surgeon-in-chief, it was above reproach.

Those he kept in employment and supported are the first to attempt to traduce him. Ingratitude never was known to elevate a scoundrel nor advance the interest of a knave.

If there ever were a man an honor and a shining star to the medical profession it is Dr. Daniel H. Williams of Chicago. His eminent fitness places him above his defamers. He is the only negro, since emancipation, to resign a $3,000 position with perqueisites. He has asked no favors nor does he play the coward now.

Mr. Secretary Bliss, and his committee of white men would not have been tolerated had Dr. Williams been surgeon in chief of the Freedman Hospital. He would have sent the committee back with a message that would have taught Mr. Bliss some sense, notwithstanding the fact that he has more money than he has brains.

He wants to understand that all negroes are not cowards nor will all of them take Mr. Bliss' insolence. THE BEE challenges any one to point to an act of irregularity on the part of Dr. Williams.

For the first time in many years, the colored school board represents the best interests of our people. The accession of Dr. Richardson and Mr. Wright has strengthened the Board, and it is hoped that both may continue long on the Board. The extension of the Normal School is the result of unanimity on the part of the trustees. We would like to see all of the High School graduates enter the Normal; but as it is necessary to insure an approved diploma to those who may graduate, it becomes necessary to place the conditions of admission at least above 75 per cent. The entire Board deserve our hearty thanks and congratulations for the manly stand tkey took in the interest of our patrons.

It seems that we are to have more colored troops. We trust that they may not come too late to prove that the interest of the colored people in the cause of humanity is equal to that manifested among our white brothers. If opportunity offers, we will show that our race can fight in a good cause as well as pray and talk. There may be reason for prayer and thanksgiving for the success of our armies in the struggle in defense of humanity; but there would be greater cause for it if this nation could honestly proclaim that in the interest of humanity and christianity all of the people in this country are free and equal. The Declaration of Independence will never be a fact until black and white enjoy alike the blessings of American Independence.

There are about two hundred teachers of color in our city who have come to meet the National Educational Association. We cannot hope for the welcome among the whites which our colored teachers deserve, but we think that those colored people who are interested in educational work should give them such welcome as their purses will admit. The indifference and prejudice of the whites should be corrected by the welcome and entertainment by the colored. Let our teachers and school officials be up and doing.

Superintendents Cook and Powell should find no good reason for antagonizing the extension of the Normal School.

The teachers in our schools who are unwilling to work, ought to get out and give others a chance.

The speech of Dr. Richardson before the School Board in the interest of the patrons, deserves special commendation. It was statistical, forceful, eloquent and convincing, and ought to insure him a long term of useful and effective service in the interest of our public schools. Dr. Richardson represents the energy, the capacity and the modesty of the race

OUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

No matter what may be said of the present prosecuting attorney, of the United States, Mr. Harry E. Davis, it is evident that he is one of the most brilliant men in the country. He is a profound thinker as well as a good prosecnting officer. The colored members of the bar assert that the uniform courtesy with which they are treated by this officer in the conducting of cases compels them to testify to the fairness of this officer, and those whom he has associated with him.

Separate schools emphasize more than one thing. They may be an expression of prejudice; but they also offer a splendid opportunity to demonstrate our power of organization, of business and executive capacity. We do not indorse proscriptive schools, but we do believe in making the most of our opportunities.

The gentleman who runs the business end of a local paper, threatens to give us a surprise. He has been a surprise to the people ever since his advent in local journalism.

Freedmen's Hospital is a disgrace to the colored people. C. N. Bliss to the editor of THE BEE.

Any old tramp who can secure indorsements can be appointed a lieutenant in the army.

THE BEE'S School of Printing will be one of the best institutions of its character in the United States.

She is a colored soldier's widow, Mr. Secretary. "I don't care what she is. If she doesn't resign, I shall dismiss her." C. N. Bliss to the editor of THE BEE.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfullly call our readers' attention to a new field of lador that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Harry Leonard, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, Harry Leonard, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling assured of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours, THE BEE.

WILL MISS MOTEN RESIGN.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES REPUDIATES THE RECOMMDATION OF THE NORMAL SCHOOL. WHAT DOES IT MEAN? WILL THE TRUSTEES INVESTIGATE?

For a number of years the citizens of this city have complained to the school authorities about their daughters and sons who have stood high in the High school, but the moment they enter the Normal school a reduction is made. In the recent class that graduated from the Normal school it was ascertainrd that a number of the High school graduates failed to enter the Normal school. Trustee Richardson, quietly investigated the affair and the facts discovered were sufficient to warrant him to recommend to the board of trustee all High school graduates who stood above 80. Miss Moten, it is reported, asserted that she would resign if any more graduates were admitted. Whether she will carry out her threat or not it is left to be seen.

If, what the trustees have found out warrants the increase to the Normal school, certainly, there should be some removals somewhere. The question the people is asking is, what does it mean?

THE COLORED REGIMENT.

From the New York Journal.

The two most picturesque and most characteristically American commanders in Gen Shafter's army bore off the great honors of a day in which all won honor.

No man can can read the story in the Journal of the "Rough Riders" charged on the block house at El Caney, of Theodore Roosevelt's mad daring in the face of what seemed certain death, without having his pulse beat faster and some reflected light of the fire of battle gleam from his eyes.

And over against this scene of the cowboy and the college graduate, the New York man about town and the Arizona "bad man" united in one coherent war machine, set the picture of the Tenth United States Calvary,—the famous colored regiment. Side by side with Roosevelt's men they fought—these black men. Scarce used to freedom themselves, they are dying that Cuba may be free. Their marksmanship was magnificent, say the eye witnesses. Their courage was superb. They bore themselves like veterans and gave positive proof that out of nature naturally peaceful, careless and playful military discipline and an inspring cause can make soldiers worthy to rank with Caesar's legions or Cromwell's army.

The Rough Riders and the Black Regiment. In those two commands is an epitome of almost our whole national character.

SERVANTS, OBEY YOUR MASTERS.

NEW RULES FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF NEGROES, MADE BY A WHITE COMMITTEE. TO WHAT IS THE WORLD COMING?

Following its report of the condition of Freedmen's Hospital, printed several days ago exclusively in The Star, the board of visitors made up a set of rules and regulations for the proper conduct of the institution in the future. These rules, after being revised by Secretary Bliss, were today made public. They are the result of careful investigation on the part of the board of visitors of the best regulations governing hospitals in the United States. Many of the old rules are completely wiped out, and all of the loose methods which have characterized the hospital in the past few years have been changed.

The regulations cover thirty-nine pages of typewriting, and are specific. The duties of each employe is carefully outlined, and there can be no mistake in the future as to responsibility.

The duties of the assistant surgeon are considerably increased. He is given general charge of the executive branch of the institution.

Special rules are made to govern the training school for nurses, which is to be maintained for the present.

No person known to be affected by an incurable chronic disease, acute alcoholism or by a contagious or infectious disease shall be admitted to Freedmen's Hospital.

Patients admitted to the Freedmen's Hospital shall be of the following class, viz.:

"Indigent residents of the District of Columbia, who, being sick or injured and requiring medical or surgical attention, are without the necessary means to pay for the same.

"Transient population of the said District, who while passing through or temporarily detained therein, fall ill or suffer accident or injury and require immediate medical or surgical care and attention, but are destitute of means to pay for the same.

"Such other destitute persons residing outside of the District of Columbia as the Secretary of the Interior, either for humane reasons or in the interest of medical science, shall cause to be admitted.

"All emergency cases, which are defined as cases of sudden illness or injury, where to delay treatment would unduly imperil the life or safety of the patients. In this class of cases the formalities hereafter prescribed for admission may be waived and the patient admitted at once."

THE FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL.

WHERE DOES THE CIVIL SERVICE LAW COME IN? DOES THE LAW MEAN ANYTHING?

Dr. A. M. Curtis, the new surgeon-in-chief, of the Freedmen,s Hospital, who was appointed against the will of the people, with the advice and consent of the Secretary of the Interior, C. N. Bliss cares no more for the civil service law than he does for the cigarettes he smokes.

Mr. C. N. Bliss, the gentleman who has more money than he has sense sustained the civil service law in the Freedmen's Hospital, but the first opportunity he had he dismissed from the service an ex-Union soldier's widow, as matron and Miss Alice Williams, the sister to Dr. Williams. Dr. Curtis appointed his sister as assistant clerk and the daughter of Mr. Allain of Chicago, an employe at the Capitol, in Miss Williams place. Young Cardoza's occupation will soon be gone as soon as Miss Curtis catches on to the work. Miss Ebersole has been retained and made overseer to the negroes. She will be an assistant of the white smelling committee, otherwise known as a board of visitors. This committee always consults Miss Ebersole, when a visit is made to the hospital.

Dr. Curtis would not attempt to dismiss her, because he knows that she holds a larger hand than he does. The position that Dr. Curtis holds at the hospital is ornamental in its character. He will be permitted to wear his silk hat and smoke cigarettes one year longer and then his occupation will be gone.

With the advice and consent of Miss Ebersole, the white boss of the Freedmen's Hospital, the committee has issued several rules and if Dr. Curtis violates one of them he will lose his official head.

There is no doubt but that Dr. Curtis can succeed now as he has four white bosses which no other surgeon-in-chief would tolerate. Secretary Bliss is of the opinion that the Freedmen's Hospital is miserably conducted and a disgrace to the colored people. Just why he should take such a sudden interest in the colored people, The BEE is unable to state.

Dr. Curtis is receiving $3,000 per annum, with his sister as assistant clerk at a salary with which she is perfectly satisfied. In addition to the above he has provided himself and family with nicely furnished rooms and servants to wait on them. They are in the main bulding of the hospital. The assistant clerk will get her board and lodging free.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

Between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking Stall 71, O street Market.

Emma: You have been complimented for your excellent work. Strict discipline is what is neccessary.

Estelle: A young lady should be well supplied with escorts. Never depend on the company of one male.

Olio: Your letter was too indiscreet. It is in bad taste to use vulgar terms or slang; always display good manners.

Lulie: It was Fred Douglass who first offered a son to Major Andrews. History of the negro soldiers will enlighten you.

Etta: Old coals will kindle some times. Fond recollections of the past generally recalls to one's mind loving events.

E. P. Do not expose your ignorance to young men. They often take advantage of it.

M. P. Dressing is an art and few girls seem to appreciate the fact. You should always dress with taste.

D. T. Nothing is more distasteful than to see a crowd of girls assemble gossiping about frivilous matters. Useful and beneficial topics should always occupy the mind of a young girl.

S. T. Too much familiarity often leads to disagreements and unpleasantness Never allow yourself to get too familiar with any one

B. M. It is generally the rule. One is very seldom sought after until some thing is needed. Some girls are deceitful.

I. T. Society should be polished and polite. "A loud laugh portrays a vacant mind."

Ola: You should have resented the insult at once. A pretentious man will pretend that he has great interest in your welfare.

Essie: Take my advice and never go on a common excursion. I am opposed to girls going on excursions unaccompanied by parents.

N. B. You did the right thing to refuse wines offered you. The manner was vulgar as well as the place.

C. W. Such a person who pretends to so many should not be trusted.

E. S. It makes no difference whether you were engaged to him or not. Circumstances have separated you. The friendship that once existed should not be tolerated, if you have accepted an engagement ring from another. Give him to understand in plain English that his company is not acceptable.

D. H. If you girls will permit long courtship, it is your fault. I have a poor opinion of a young lady who would ask for a present from a gentleman to whom she is engaged.

E. Never place youself under obligations to any one. It is better to be poor than to place yourself in such a position.

Jeanette: My opinion is that your manners were rather rude. Sedateness and polite manners will win all the time.

Minnie: You should always attend to business as you are directed. Never talk your business to other people.

Marie: You can be pleasant always, but be postive in your business relations.

It is quite easy for one to misjudge your meaning.

L. E. S. Your selection should be appreciated, I am sure. You should remember however, that an intelligent girl should not marry below her station, nor should she be intellectually a man's inferior.

Y. M. One's house affairs should not be exposed to the neighborhood.

Talkative girls are not to be trusted with secrets. My advice is to confide in but a few.

M. B. C. Never attempt to look upon one with contempt. You never know when you will be compelled to go to him for aid and succor.

E. O. I would advise you to be honest in your dealings with your associates. Nothing commends a young woman more than honesty. You must be a positive character. When a young man loses confidence in you, it would be better to find another companion. A young lady that commands the respect of any man is a jewel.

Flirtation: In reply to your letter of recent date, I would suggest that you discontinue such practice. A few men have confidence in a young girl who obtains her acquaintance by flirtation No refined and cultured young lady will carry on flirtation with any man no matter who he may be. I have but little faith in office holders. A majority of them spend their money before it is drawn

Anna: It is in bad taste to allow a young man to meet you at a place of amusement. He should certainly take one evening off to escort you to the place of amusement.

Punch cards: No young lady should take punch cards to solicit money. It is vulgar and no lady of refinement and education would be guilty of such impropriety, money for churches should be collected differently. The lady will either be insulted or her intentions may be misconstrued.

Temple, the house of God, properly the Temple of Solomon, David first consented the design of building a house worthy of the divine Majesty. God accepted of his good intentions, but refused him the honor. Solomon laid the foundation of the Temple 1002 B. C. Completed it 1011, B. C. There were two temples, the first erected by Solomon. The second by Zerrubabel and Joshua, the high priest. The first temple, viz.: Solomon's, stood on the hill of Mount Mariah. It was built after the form of the tabernacle; seven years and six months were occupied in building it. It retained its pristine splendor thirty-four years, when it it was destroyed by the Chaldeans under Nebuchadnezzar, in about thirty years after, the second Temple was built, it was destroyed by the Romans. In the year 70, V. B., on the same month and that Solomon's Temple had been destroyed.

A MINISTER'S EIGHT RULES.

THAT WILL INSURE THE SUCCESS OF HIS CHURCH AND PASTORAL WORK.

Mrs. Lyman Abbott, in the July Ladies Home Journal, lays down eight rules that are essential to a minister's successful church and pastoral work. These she has the minister himself proclaim.

1. I must always be ready to call when invited.
2. Must catch at every straw of an errand to take me to one of my people.
3. Draw out from others their interests rather than intrude my own, but always assume a common interest in the improvement of the town.
4. Never leave a house without having something on which to hang another call.
5. Never meet a person with criticism or fault-finding.
6. Prepare for calling as truly as for preaching.
7. Study especially the Master's way, and try to carry His spirit with me.
8. Keep always in mind that it is my business to bring men to a consciousness of God, and to an understanding of their relationship with Him.
